

I encourage you to reverse the ruling which will help to consolidate media power in the hands of a few wealthy companies.
The public must be informed about what this decision and the resulting mergers will mean for dissenting views and local news.
Never forget that the people own the airwaves; everyone, not just the rich!